

169-180

171-180

DURANT

Aurelius to replenish his Army enrolled slaves, gladiators, policemen and criminals.

originally Marcus Annius Verus.

To Marcus Aelius Aperius Antoninus

From 169 he was sole emperor

His son & successor was Commodus

Jan/Feb 169

Lucius Verus died of a stroke at ALTINUM.

Buried in Mausoleum of Hadrian.

Lucius Verus died
Marcus Aurelius ruled alone till 180

Jan/Feb
Spring 169

The emperors Marcus & Lucius were traveling south in a carriage when Verus suffered a stroke.

Unable to speak he was taken to ALTINUM, a small town on the north side of the Venetian lagoon, where he died 3 days later. (Jan/Feb 169)

Verus's body was taken back to Rome and laid to rest in Mausoleum of Hadrian, along with his twin father & his adopted father Antonenies Perris.

169 - 179 AD

Repeated campaigns of Marcus Aurelius in Pannonia

169 AD

MARCUS AURELIUS (alone) was Emperor